

CCS Newsletter

February 23rd, 2005

“Consider it pure joy, my brothers, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith develops perseverance. Perseverance must finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.” James 1: 2 - 4

Upcoming Events:

March 7 th - 11 th	Stanford Achievement Testing
March 17 th , 7:00 p.m.	Science Fair & Talent Show
March 21 st	Candy Sales kickoff
March 25 th	Half day - School dismissed at noon
March 28 - April 1 st	Spring Break!

Friday hot lunch will be Wendy's; Tuesday hot lunch will be Sloppy Joes. Also, on Monday the PTO will be providing a 'Breakfast for Lunch' hot lunch.

Books Are Fun

These are back! Please come in to the school office and take a look at the many neat items available for purchase! Orders must be in to Cheryl by 8:30 a.m. on Friday, February 25th.

CCS Auction 2005 - We need you!

For those of you who have not put your hours in to help at the school, please sign up for one or more of the areas below:

- 4 adults and 3-4 teens to provide baby sitting at the building the night of the Auction (April 22nd, 2005)
- Sell one whole table of 8 tickets
- 2 Donation runners
- 4 adults to sell drawing tickets at the Auction
- 4 adults for decorating the late afternoon of the Auction
- 4 adults with trucks or SUV vehicles to transport items to the CDA Inn on Friday afternoon the day of the Auction
- 2 Greeters at the door the night of the Auction, in 1940's dress

If you have any questions, please call Georgette Rude, Auction Coordinator, at either 964-2931 or 772-9833.